THE AMERICAN FARMER.—The first No. of the new series is this day issued. It is published monthly, in a large octavo form, each No. containing 32 pages, and embellished with engravings, at $1 per annum. The present No. contains among other embellishments, a view of "Riversdale," the beautiful homstead of C. B. Calvert, Esq., of Prince George's county, Md., with a portrait of his splendid cow "Cinderella." A large body of matter, valuable to the farmer, is given in this number, from foreign and domestic journals, as well as original communications. Specimen numbers can be had at the office Address
